ARTICLE II Constituent Associations

Section 1. Definition

Constituent nurses' associations of CNA shall be termed CA's. CAs are groups of CNA Members who wish to organize on the basis of a common interest or by geographic location.

Section 2. Qualifications

A CA will become a constituent of CNA upon approval of its Bylaws or Rules of Organization, or other criteria determined by the CNA Board.

Section 3. Duties

It shall be the duty of each CA to:

- A. send to the CNA Bylaws Committee the names and addresses of all officers, liaisons and other appropriate CA officials immediately following their election or appointment.
- B. send to the CNA Bylaws Committee a copy of the CA Bylaws or Rules of Organization and all amendments adopted by the CA. Any proposed amendments/revisions shall be sent to the CNA Bylaws Committee for review prior to voting by the CA members. A copy of the Amended/Revised Bylaws or Rules shall be sent to the CNA Bylaws Committee following adoption.
- C. submit nominations for representatives to the ANA Membership Assembly.
- D. submit nominations for election or appointment to the various structural units of CNA.
- E. report to CNA as may be required by the CNA Board in order to comply with the Bylaws.

Section 4. Disqualification

Any CA which fails to comply with requirements stated in these bylaws or for other cause deemed sufficient may be disqualified by a two-thirds vote of the Board, provided due notice has been given. Such CA and its members must be notified at least three months before the vote is taken and the CA shall have the opportunity for a hearing with the Board within said three- month period.

Section 5. Reinstatement

Any CA which has been disqualified may be reinstated by a two-thirds vote of the Board.

ARTICLE III Organizational Affiliates of CNA

Section 1. Qualifications

An organizational affiliate of CNA is an association that:

- A. is a nursing or health related organization that has a mission and purpose harmonious with CNA, has a governing body composed of a majority of registered nurses or licensed practical/vocational nurses, and who meets criteria established by the CNA Board of Directors.
- B. has been granted organizational affiliate status by the CNA Board of Directors.
- C. has paid an organizational affiliate fee to CNA.

Section 2. Rights

Each organizational affiliate shall be entitled to:

- A. one registered or licensed practical/vocational nurse representative who shall have a vote in the CNA Membership Assembly.
- B. make reports or presentations to the CNA Membership Assembly within its area of expertise.
- C. submit the names of representatives qualified for appointment to ad hoc groups and task forces.

Section 3. Responsibilities

Each organizational affiliate shall maintain a mission and purpose harmonious with the purposes and functions of CNA.

ARTICLE IV Membership and Dues

Section 1. Composition

The CNA is composed of registered nurses and licensed practical/vocational nurses who meet the qualifications for membership stated in these Bylaws. Members belong to ANA through the state. In addition to membership in CNA and ANA, CNA members may elect to join a CA provided they meet the qualifications established by the CA.

Section 2. Qualifications

- A. A member is one:
 - 1) who has been granted a license to practice as a registered nurse or licensed practical/vocational nurse in at least one state, territory, or District of Columbia of the United States and does not have a license under suspension or revocation in any state or is otherwise entitled by law to practice. A nurse in recovery who has surrendered a license to practice or a nurse who has retired and/or no longer chooses to practice, but whose license was in good standing at the time the nurse made the decision not to maintain an active license, also qualifies for membership.
 - 2) whose dues are not delinquent.
- B. Membership meets qualifications in accordance with ANA Bylaws and is unrestricted by consideration of age, color, creed, disability, gender, health status, lifestyle, nationality, race, religion, or sexual orientation.
- C. Renewal of membership shall be contingent on meeting the qualifications for membership as stated in Section 2 A.
- D. Membership is open to all registered nurses or licensed practical/vocational nurses who meet the qualifications stated in these Bylaws.

Section 3. Member Privileges and Obligations

- A. Members shall have the rights to vote, hold office, and participate in meetings in accordance with these Bylaws, ANA Bylaws, and applicable law.
- B. Member right to participate shall not be removed except in accordance with disciplinary procedures consistent with these Bylaws and applicable law.

Section 4. Disciplinary Action and Appeal

- A. Cause of disciplinary action by CNA against a member shall be limited to failure to fulfill the obligations cited in these bylaws and other such actions detrimental to the purposes, goals and functions of CNA and ANA.
- B. Disciplinary proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with policies and procedures established by the Board of Directors, pursuant to common parliamentary and statutory law. The Board of Directors shall have final disciplinary authority over members.
- C. Depending on the severity of the violation, a member may be reprimanded, censured, suspended from membership, or permanently expelled from membership.
- D. Any disciplinary action taken by another C/SNA against one of its members shall be given full recognition and enforcement provided such action was taken in accordance with the disciplining C/SNA's bylaws and disciplinary procedures.
- E. A member may appeal any disciplinary action, in accordance with procedures adopted by the CNA Board of Directors.

Section 5. Dues

- A. Dues for CNA shall be established by a majority of secret ballot votes cast by members. A mail or electronic ballot is permissible.
- B. Dues for members shall include the present rate of dues paid by CNA to ANA. In the event that the rate of dues payable to ANA by CNA is increased, any such changes shall automatically be added to the annual dues owed by members to CNA.
- C. If a CA elects to charge additional fees for service to members, its policies shall not interfere with the rights of members as defined in these bylaws.
- D. By a two-thirds vote of the responding members, each member may be assessed no more than one time per year an amount not to exceed 10% of annual CNA dues; a statement of the purpose and needs for such an assessment shall be presented to the total membership prior to the vote.
- E. A member who qualifies under one of the following categories may elect to pay one-half CNA dues:
 - 1) nurses who are not employed.

- 2) nurses who are employed part-time.
- 3) RN students in full-time study.
- 4) graduates of basic nursing programs for a first-year membership if initiated within 12 months after graduation.

Section 6. Change of Dues Category

- A. No moneys shall be refunded, or additional moneys collected, when a change of dues category is made within the membership year.

Section 7. Transfer

- A. Transfer from or to another C/SNA shall comply with ANA Bylaws. Additional dues shall not be required from nor refunded to members transferring from or to another C/SNA if the member has made full payment of dues.

ARTICLE V Membership Assembly

Section 1. Definition

The Membership Assembly is the governing and official voting body of CNA.

Section 2. Functions

The Membership Assembly shall:

- A. take positions, determine policy and set direction on substantive issues of a broad nature necessitating the authority and backing of the official voting body of CNA.
- B. adopt, amend, and revise bylaws.

Section 3. Composition

- A. The Membership Assembly is composed of the Board of Directors, one registered nurse or licensed practical/vocational nurse representative from each Organizational Affiliate, and the CNA members present.

- C. Region boundaries shall be set by policy of the CNA Membership Assembly.

Section 4. Terms of Office

- A. The President Elect is elected in even-numbered years and serves a one-year term.
- B. The President Elect becomes President in odd-numbered years and serves for two years.
- C. The secretary shall be elected in odd-numbered years.
- D. The vice president and treasurer shall be elected in even-numbered years.
- E. In odd-numbered years, one director from each odd-numbered region, one At Large CA Director and the At Large Recent Graduate Director will be elected. In even-numbered years, one director from each even-numbered region and one At Large CA Director will be elected.
- F. Officers and directors shall serve two years or until their successors are elected.
- G. No officer or director shall serve more than two consecutive terms in the same office. An officer or director who has served more than half a term shall be considered to have served a full term.
- H. No officer or director shall serve concurrently as an officer or director on a board of another association if such participation might result in a conflict of interest to CNA or the individual, as determined by the Board.
- I. Members shall be eligible to serve in only one elected office on the Board at any one time.

Section 5. Vacancies

- A. If a vacancy occurs in the office of the president, the vice president immediately assumes office as president.
- B. All other vacancies on the Board shall be filled by Board appointment.
- C. An officer or member who fills a vacancy in the office of President or assumes the duties of an absent President may serve as an ANA Membership Assembly Representative only if elected as an ANA Membership Assembly Representative.

Section 6. Meetings

- A. Meetings shall be held at least three times annually at such time and place as shall be determined by the Board. Special meetings may be called by the president and shall be called upon the written request of no fewer than 25% of the members of the Board.
- B. Business which requires immediate action by the Board may be conducted by mail, telephone, or electronic means. Such action shall be subject to ratification at the next regular meeting of the Board.
- C. Absence from more than two meetings without cause shall constitute a resignation, and the vacancy shall be filled as provided for in these bylaws.

Section 7. Quorum

A majority of the Board of Directors, one of whom shall be the president or vice president, shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Board.

Section 8. Executive Committee

There shall be an Executive Committee of the Board composed of the officers who shall have all the powers of the Board to transact business between Board meetings. Such transactions shall be reported at the next regular Board meeting. The Executive Committee may cancel a Board or Membership meeting in an emergency by a majority vote either in session, or by telephone, mail, or electronic means. - D. Members may write in the names of persons to serve if elected, provided they have the person's consent in writing and the person shall have met established qualifications.

Section 3. Elections

- A. Elections shall be by secret ballot. A mail or electronic ballot is permissible. The ballot shall clearly state that a candidate for President Elect is concurrently running as a candidate for ANA Membership Assembly Representative which will be served when she/he becomes President. The Executive Committee shall establish the method of verification of eligibility of voters.
- B. A plurality vote shall constitute an election; in the case of a tie, the choice shall be determined by lot.
- C. Terms of office shall begin when those elected have been notified by the President.
- D. Any challenge to the election shall be filed with the Secretary within 30 days after official notification of election results.

ARTICLE VIII Official Publication

The Colorado Nurse shall be the official publication of this Association.

ARTICLE IX Amendments or Revisions

Section 1. Amendments or Revisions with Notice

These bylaws may be amended or revised at any annual or special meeting of the CNA Membership Assembly by a two-thirds vote. All suggestions for proposed amendments shall be in the possession of the Secretary at least two months before the annual meeting and provided to the members in writing prior to the meeting.

Section 2. Amendments or Revisions Without Notice

These bylaws may be amended or revised without previous notice at any annual or special meeting of the CNA Membership Assembly by ninety-nine percent vote.

ARTICLE X Parliamentary Authority

The rules contained in Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised shall govern meetings of this association in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with these bylaws and any special rules of order the association may adopt.

ARTICLE XI Relationship to American Nurses Association

Section 1. Definition

The American Nurses Association is the national professional nursing organization whose membership is composed of constituent member associations that meet the qualifications and responsibilities specified in ANA bylaws. CNA is a constituent state nurses association of ANA. CNA shall remain affiliated with ANA and shall be bound by the obligation to pay dues to ANA until such time as 2/3 of the entire CNA membership votes to disaffiliate from ANA. CNA membership, for these purposes, is defined as individual members who have ANA rights and privileges of membership as a result of their CNA membership. The vote may occur by mail or electronic ballot, with appropriate notice and procedures to protect the validity and integrity of the vote.

Section 2. Responsibilities

The responsibilities of CNA to ANA shall be to:

- A. Maintain membership in ANA by meeting the qualifications for membership as outlined in ANA bylaws.
- B. Pay dues to ANA in accordance with the policies adopted by the ANA Membership Assembly and the provisions of Article XI, Section 1 of these bylaws.
- C. Provide for CNA members to elect Representatives to the ANA Membership Assembly according to the provisions of ANA bylaws.
- D. Comply with contractual agreements and statements of understanding between CNA and ANA.
- E. Apprise CNA members of their right to:
 - 1) receive a membership card and the ANA Member Periodical.
 - 2) be a candidate for ANA elective and appointive positions.
 - 3) participate in the election of Representatives to the ANA Membership Assembly.
 - 4) attend the meetings of the ANA Membership Assembly and other unrestricted ANA activities.
 - 5) attend the Quadrennial Congress of the International Council of Nurses.
- F. Submit CNA bylaws and proposed amendments for review to ANA in accordance with the requirements stated in the ANA Bylaws.

Section 3. Rights

As a constituent of ANA, CNA shall be entitled to:

- A. display a certificate of membership in ANA.
- B. distribute the ANA Member Periodical to its members.
- C. hold voting seats in the ANA Membership Assembly.
- D. submit proposals for consideration by ANA.
- E. submit the names of nominees for ANA elective and appointive positions.
- F. a fair hearing before any disciplinary action is taken.

Section 4. Representatives to ANA Membership Assembly

- A. The number of CNA Representatives to the ANA Membership Assembly shall be determined by ANA.
- B. Representatives to the ANA Membership Assembly shall be CNA members elected by individual members of CNA by secret ballot. A mail or electronic ballot is permissible.
- C. Representatives will be elected in odd-numbered years. Representatives shall serve for two-year terms or until their successors are elected.
- D. Representatives shall not serve more than two consecutive terms. The CNA President, who also serves as an elected ANA Membership Assembly Representative, is exempt from this restriction.
- E. Vacancies will be filled by elected alternates. Alternates are those CNA members who run for ANA Membership Assembly Representative and are not elected. The first alternate is the member receiving the next highest number of votes. Additional alternates are those members receiving votes in descending order.
- F. Any elected Representative to the ANA Membership Assembly will be removed if he or she is no longer a member in good standing of CNA. Representatives may also be removed for cause by the CNA Board of Directors.

Section 5. Representatives to ANA Leadership Council

CNA Representatives to the ANA Leadership Council shall be the CNA President and the CNA Executive Director or their designees.
